Howard Rosenman Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you to a man with a passion for storytelling…

He is an acclaimed producer, whose account of the “COMMON THREADS,” the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt, earned him a Peabody Award and an Academy Award for Best Documentary Feature. He recently produced Call me by your Name which earned four Academy Award nominations and won for Best Adapted Screenplay.

He is a passionate humanitarian, who is Co-Founder of Project Angel Food in Los Angeles, an organization that provides meals-on-wheels for AIDS/HIV patients and recently they served their 11 millionth meal.

And he is lifelong Zionist and advocate for Jewish National Fund, who is the son of seventh-generation Israelis from Jerusalem, and left medical school in the U.S. during the Six-Day War to serve with the IDF as a medic.

Ladies and gentleman, please welcome Academy Award-winning producer, Howard Rosenman.
