

Bio Danny Stein

100 words

Danny Stein, a Jewish National Fund-USA (JNF-USA) Alexander Muss High School in Israel (High School in Israel) alum, made Aliya to Israel in 2006. Since then, he has worked as an educator for High School in Israel, JNF-USA's flagship study abroad program in Israel. Danny's classes cover Jewish history from the Tanakh (bible) until today, specializing in the current Arab-Israeli conflict. His lessons take place in the classroom and on the ground around Israel and Poland.

With over 1000 former students, Danny is always looking for more ways to teach about Israel and Jewish history, including using the land of Israel as a living and breathing classroom. Since 2020, Danny has used online education to reach new audiences around the world with his brand of passionate, nuanced, and inspiring Israel education.

50 words

Danny Stein, a Jewish National Fund-USA (JNF-USA) Alexander Muss High School in Israel (High School in Israel) alum, made Aliya to Israel in 2006. He has worked as an educator for High School in Israel, JNF-USA's flagship study abroad program in Israel and has used online education to reach new audiences around the world with his brand of passionate, nuanced, and inspiring Israel education.