

Bio Virag Gulyas

Intro

Ladies and gentlemen, it is my pleasure to introduce one of Israel's proudest advocates...

She is a Hungarian-born statesman who formerly served as a diplomat to the European Union...

A leader who is the NYC coordinator for End Jew Hatred, a grassroots civil rights movement dedicated to ensuring Jewish liberation from centuries of persecution and achieving justice for the Jewish people...

And a non-Jewish proud Zionist who is changing the way people look at Israel and the Jewish people through her advocacy and blog, "The Almost Jewish..."

Ladies and gentlemen, please join me in welcoming, Virag Gulyas!

100 words

Virag Gulyas is a former diplomat to the EU, communications consultant, and journalist. She is also the NYC coordinator for End Jew Hatred, a grassroots civil rights movement dedicated to ensuring Jewish liberation from centuries of persecution and achieving justice for the Jewish people through peaceful direct action.

As a loud pro-Israel voice, a Hungarian, and a non-Jewish Zionist, Gulyas has created a movement that aims to change the stereotypes about Israel and the Jewish people one day at a time. She regularly writes and speaks about her journey and is well-known for her blog, "The Almost Jewish."

50 words

Virag Gulyas is a former diplomat to the EU, communications consultant, and journalist. She is also the NYC coordinator for End Jew Hatred, a grassroots civil rights movement dedicated to ensuring Jewish liberation from centuries of persecution and achieving justice for the Jewish people through peaceful direct action.