

Bob Alper Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome a man who can help you both laugh and pray...

He is a comedian with a cause, who has performed across North America and England, and who has done more than 200 shows with Arab and Muslim comedy partners...

He is a respected rabbi, who holds a doctorate from Princeton Theological Seminary, and who has served congregations around the United States for 14 years...

And he is a poignant author, who has written three books that blend spirituality, emotional storytelling, and wit, including "Life Doesn't Get Any Better Than This," "Thanks, I Needed That," and "A Rabbi Confesses."

Ladies and Gentlemen, it is a privilege to introduce a man uniquely positioned at the intersection of comedy and religion, Rabbi Bob Alper.
