

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you to a man deeply committed to Jewish education...

He is a seasoned leader in the non-profit and for-profit worlds alike, who served as executive director of the Jewish Education Association of MetroWest, New Jersey, and then became CEO of a business management consulting firm...

He is a gifted educator who has taught at all grade levels, published an array of educational materials, and led travel groups—young and old—to Israel...

And he is a pillar of the Jewish community, who serves on the board of the Association of Jewish Communal Service and the International Board of March of the Living, chaired the Association of Directors of Central Agencies for Jewish Education, and held leadership roles for the Council for Jewish Education and the United Jewish Appeal Federation of Greater Washington...

Ladies and gentleman, please welcome a passionate Jewish leader and teacher, Chaim Lauer.
