

Chloe Valdary Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it's now my privilege to introduce you to a rising young leader...

She is a passionate thought leader, taking her innovative theory of change, the 'Theory of Enchantment' from the non-profit sector to the corporate world. Combining the psychology of persuasion with profound insights from household names in pop culture, her 'Theory of Enchantment' is a philosophy that can help change agents and corporate leaders navigate an increasingly polarized world and help untap human potential along the way...

She is an accomplished writer, who served as a Tikvah Fellow under Pulitzer Prize-winner Bret Stephens at The Wall Street Journal and has written for many media outlets including The Jerusalem Post, The Daily Beast, The Times of Israel, and more...

And she is a proud Zionist and renowned lecturer, touring the world and lectured at several universities, including Harvard, Georgetown, and Columbia...

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome activist, author, and proud Zionist Chloe Valdary!
