

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you to a man whose finger and microphone are on the pulse of Israeli politics...

He is a veteran broadcaster, who has spent more than 20 years as a diplomatic and political correspondent at Israel Radio, worked as an Israeli consultant for BBC, Reuters, and Sky News, and has spent more than three decades reporting from the frontline in Israel...

He is a fearless muckraker, who routinely breaks high-profile news stories, from an exclusive conversation with a Jordanian foreign minister who revealed the late King Hussein's disdain for Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, to an exposé on racist comments against Arabs made by late Knesset Member Rehavam Ze'evi, which prompted a Knesset investigation.

And he is a highly sought-after speaker, who frequently travels to the U.S. to lecture at universities and to Jewish audiences on behalf of major Jewish organizations...

Ladies and gentleman, please welcome a man whose voice is recognized by countless Israelis and Diaspora Jews, David Ze'ev.