

Ladies and Gentleman,

Now it's my privilege to introduce you to a woman, one of the top in her field, who has been instrumental in the Jewish National Fund's growth, impact and success for more than two decades ...

She is a brilliant, passionate talent, who has shown a unique ability to create synergy between JNF's mission and the dreams of JNF's donors taking them to even greater heights,

And she is an inspiring executive, who has built a larger, stronger and more inclusive community of supporters than Jewish National Fund has ever seen before.

Ladies and Gentleman, please welcome one of the top philanthropic professionals in the country, JNF National Campaign Director Diane Scar.
