

Eugene Kontrovich

Ladies and gentlemen, it's now my privilege to introduce you a world-renowned scholar of international law...

He is a passionate educator, who teaches constitutional and international law at Northwestern University and has published more than 30 major scholarly articles and book chapters in leading law reviews and journals...

He is a trusted advisor to policymakers, who is consulted by lawmakers in the U.S., Israel, and Europe...

And he is an internationally-renowned lecturer, who regularly addresses legislative bodies, universities, synagogues, and Jewish and professional groups throughout the U.S. and Israel.

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome Professor Eugene Kontorovich!