

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you to a woman dedicated to spreading awareness about the Holocaust...

She is a popular author, whose award-winning book, What Papa Told Me, a memoir about her grandfather's life before, during and after the Holocaust, was endorsed by Elie Wiesel and has sold over 30,000 copies worldwide...

She is a passionate advocate, who has appeared in two documentaries about the grandchildren of Holocaust survivors, Memory after Belsen and I Am Carrying the Holocaust in My Pocket, and has spoken about the Shoah to thousands of people across the country...

And she is a nationally recognized professional "organizer," whose YouTube video of her tiny and ultra-organized Manhattan studio apartment went viral with millions of hits, wrote the book 90 Lessons for Living Large in 90 Square Feet, and has appeared on news networks such as ABC and NBC to speak about organized living in tight spaces.

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome a devoted preserver of Holocaust memory, Felice Cohen.
