

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Now it's my privilege to introduce you to an expert communicator...

He is a devoted Zionist, who made Aliyah from London in 2000 and now lives on the outskirts of Jerusalem, in Beit Shemesh, with his wife and their six children...

He is a leading figure in the field of Israel advocacy, who has leveraged his experience in media, marketing, and strategic communications to train thousands of people to effectively counter anti-Israel bias in the media through the cutting-edge non-profit organization HonestReporting...

And he is an in-demand orator, who is regularly invited to speak on panels and to delegations visiting Israel, and has received numerous accolades for his lectures internationally.

Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome Joe Hyams.
