

Joyce Foster Introduction

Ladies and Gentlemen, it is my pleasure to introduce you to a tireless civic leader...

She is a dedicated philanthropist, who has led, worked for, and supported Jewish Family Service of Colorado since 1976, holding lay leadership positions such as board chair and spending 16 years on staff as the director of resource development and director of employment services...

She is a respected political leader, who was the first Jewish woman elected to the Denver City Council and held office from 1993 to 2003, and who served in the Colorado State Senate from 2008 to 2013...

And she is a passionate advocate, who has been a prominent voice for people suffering from mental illness, and who received the ALLY Award from the One Colorado Education Fund in 2014 in recognition of her advocacy for LGBTQ Coloradans.

Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome a pillar of Colorado's Jewish and broader communities, Joyce Foster.
