

Laura Schor Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you to an academic dedicated to studying women throughout history...

She is a respected academic, who is a professor of history at Hunter College and the CUNY Graduate Center, the founding Dean of the CUNY Honors College, and the former Director of Women's Studies and Vice Provost for Academic Planning at the University of Cincinnati...

She is a pioneer in the field of women's history, who is the author of dozens of research articles and several acclaimed books, including Women and the Making of the Working Class: Lyon, 1830-1870, about the women silk workers of Lyon, and The Best School in Jerusalem: Annie Landau's School for Girls, 1900-1960...

And she is a skilled executive, who was the National Executive Director of the largest women's Zionist organization in the United States, Hadassah, and served as Provost of Hunter College for nine years.

Ladies and gentlemen please welcome an experienced educational professional and researcher, Dr. Laura Schor.
