

Lynda Fishman Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you a woman with an inspirational story...

She is a moving author, who wrote Repairing Rainbows: A True Story of Family, Tragedy and Choices, which tells the story of the loss of her family and subsequent journey to find meaning and purpose in her life...

She is a poignant motivational speaker, who talks about her key strategies for people who want to choose happiness over sadness, tying into core Jewish values, like the importance of stepping in with acts of loving kindness and helping others who are dealing with challenges and difficulties...

And she is a talented professional, who is a trained clinical social worker, founder of the summer camp, Adventure Valley, and a faculty member of the Social Service Worker Program in School of Health & Community Services at Durham College.

Ladies and gentlemen please welcome motivational speaker, Lynda Fishman.
