

Michal Shiloah Galnoor Introduction

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Now it's my privilege to introduce you to an incredible entrepreneur...

She is an accomplished retailer, who used her eye for style and her nose for business to build a highly successful fashion boutique in Ramat Hasharon...

She is an entrepreneurial marketing guru, who launched and operated her own public relations and marketing business...

She was born a 5th generation Jerusalemite whose grandfather founded the Mossad...

And she is a passionate executive, who fell in love with the people in the Western Galilee and the idea of sharing them with the wider world, and now promotes tourism in partnership with Jewish National Fund.

Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome the CEO of Western Galilee Now, Michal Shiloah Galnoor.
