

Muhammad Al-Nabari Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you a man dedicated to the betterment of his community and Israelis of all backgrounds...

He is a lauded public servant, who has served as the mayor of Hura—a Bedouin village in southern Israel—since 2004 where he successfully decreased the unemployment rate and improved the education system...

He is a groundbreaking researcher, who was a successful pharmaceutical industry innovator and registered 12 patents for drugs dealing with treatments of Alzheimer's disease and brain cancer...

And he is a passionate activist, who is the founder of Desert Stars, a young Bedouin leadership program, and who serves on the management board of The Abraham Fund Initiatives, a non-profit dedicated to advancing coexistence, equality, and cooperation between Jewish and Arab Israelis.

Ladies and gentlemen please welcome mayor of Hura, Dr. Muhammad Al-Nabari.
