

Paul Kaye Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you a man with a story as thrilling as any spy novel...

He is one of Israel's earliest defenders, who was clandestinely recruited after WWII into the precursor to the IDF, the Haganah, where he was captured trying to relocate 1,500 Holocaust survivors to Israel...

He is a proud veteran, who was later recruited to join Israel's navy and became one of the first members of the elite naval unit, Shayetet 13, where he worked on an underwater demolition team...

And he is an enduring pillar of the Jewish community, who volunteered in the Israeli Consulate in New York City during the Six Day War and later flew to work in Israel's defense ministry when they were attacked on Yom Kippur in 1973.

Ladies and gentlemen please welcome a hero of the Jewish people, Paul Kaye.
