

Steven Windmueller Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you to an extraordinary Jewish educator.

He is a respected academic, who teaches at Hebrew Union College's Los Angeles campus, where he served as dean and is the Rabbi Alfred Gottschalk Emeritus Professor of Jewish Communal Service, and has appeared on nationally syndicated media to educate the public about on Jewish public affairs and Jewish political behavior.

He is a talented Jewish professional, who previously served as the L.A. Jewish Federation's Director of Community Relations, as a federation director in upstate New York, and as a consultant and program resource specialist to the American Jewish Committee. Today, he continues to consult for Jewish organizations and lecture to audiences across the nation.

And he is an accomplished author, who has written extensively on the Middle East, Jewish public and civic affairs, and global social trends, and has been published in The Los Angeles Times and The LA Daily News, Newsweek, The Washington Post, eJewishphilanthropy.com and numerous other general and Jewish publications. Over the course of his professional career, Dr. Windmueller has written three books and hundreds of articles.

Ladies and gentleman, please welcome Professor Steven Windmueller.
