

Titi Ayanaw Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it's now my privilege to introduce you to a truly inspiring Israeli woman...

She is a determined spirit, who was orphaned at 10 and left her home country of Ethiopia two years later with her grandparents and brother...

She is a beloved Israeli TV personality, who demonstrated her remarkable physical strength — and strength of character— by placing second on the Israeli edition of Survivor...

And she is a role model for all, who became the first Ethiopian-born Israeli to win the title of Miss Israel in 2013 and has since used her platform in the effort to establish a community arts education center in Netanya serving at-risk youth.

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome Miss Israel 2013 Titi Ayanaw!
