

Zaq Harrison Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you to a man with deep passions for history and the State of Israel...

He is a renowned historian, who wrote "They Are All Gone" for the HBO documentary Sport in America: Our Defining Stories, in which he recounted how he was affected by the murder of 11 Israeli Olympians at the 1972 Munich Games, who created the educational program Olympic Choices, which explores moral and ethical dilemmas, and who was a driving force and an official speaker at the Israeli Embassy's memorial ceremony marking the 40th anniversary of the Munich Olympics tragedy...

He is a passionate activist, who received the U.S. Presidential Volunteer Service Award, and who has devoted his spare time to mentoring students through nonprofits such as Hadassah's Young Judaea and BBYO...

And he is a successful professional, who after serving in the IDF during the First Lebanon War entered the private sector and gained over two decades of experience in banking and international finance.

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome a well-rounded history buff, Zaq Harrison.
