1. I understand that the trip may involve air and other travel to and from my home to Israel as well as tours by bus or car, sightseeing and a variety of other planned and unplanned activities in Israel and the territories. I am aware that the U.S. Department of State regularly issues travel warnings and travel alerts about travel to Israel and the territories and that these warnings and alerts are available on the website of the US Department of State: <http://travel.state.gov/content/passports/english/country/israel.html>. I have read, or have had the opportunity to read, these U.S. Department of State travel warnings and travel alerts, and I understand the security risks inherent to such travel, and I assume such risks.

2. Notwithstanding any security arrangements that may be made by Jewish National Fund or any other party, I understand that JNF does not guarantee the personal safety and property of participants while they are participating in the JNF program or any other program-related activities, including airline travel, ground transportation, meals, lodging, recreational activities and other events. I hereby affirm that my participation in this tour is voluntary and that I am aware of the risks related with traveling overseas, and I agree to abide by the security directives issued during the course of the tour.

3. I understand that Jewish National Fund strongly discourages participants on the trip from making or participating in excursions or day trips separate and apart from those arranged, planned or provided for by JNF, and should I choose to do so, I acknowledge that I will be doing so at my own risk and all of the described waivers of responsibility and releases from liability apply to such circumstances. I further acknowledge that JNF is not responsible for me if I choose to extend my stay in Israel before or after the organized JNF program.

4. The tour program demands participants to be in stable physical and mental health, and confident in their ability to undertake all activities reflected in the itinerary. It is required that physical disabilities of any kind be advised at the time of registration. It is understood that participants requiring special attention or treatment will be traveling with a companion. I hereby confirm that I have consulted my physician within the last 6 months, and that physician has advised me that I am in good health and fit for extended travel, including the venues and activities chosen for this trip.
