I. Introduction – Organization Background

Since 1901 Jewish National Fund - USA (’JNF-USA’) has been dedicated to ensuring a strong, secure and prosperous future for the land and people of Israel. JNF-USA is fulfilling its vision of supporting population growth in the north and south and connecting the next generation to Israel by planting trees, building houses, parks, medical and trauma centers, sourcing water solutions, funding agriculture and culinary research and boosting tourism.

JNF - USA takes pride in bringing thousands of people to Israel annually on working missions and task forces, leadership development missions, trips and private tours. JNF-USA offers lay leaders, donors, unaffiliated adults, seniors, families, high school students, college students and young adults a myriad of options for their travel. These experiences foster a connection and commitment to the land and people of Israel.

Alexander Muss High School in Israel (AMHSI), JNF-USA’s college preparatory and study abroad adventure, brings approximately 1,400 high school students to Israel annually, and is positioned to double its numbers in the next 5 years. This is an important and growing segment of JNF travel and represents JNF-USA’s commitment to Zionist continuity in the next generation.

In order to leverage the opportunities before us, JNF-USA’s strategic roadmap, One Billion Dollar Roadmap for the Next Decade, is engaged in a range of groundbreaking new ventures resulting in significant, continuous and expanded travel to Israel. JNF Travel & Tours, a registered trademark of JNF-USA, (877) JNF – TOUR and Travel @jnf.org owned exclusively by JNF are vehicles for travelers to connect with JNF’s travel department and tour operators and register for JNF travel.

II. Project, Goals and Scope of Service

In the past 10 years JNF-USA has exponentially grown the number and variety of missions, trips and tours bringing travelers to Israel. This growth includes niche interest travel, personalized itinerary planning and brand new opportunities while increasing the frequency of the most popular trips. Most trips and tours are open to the general public and include introductory Israel travel as well as thematic tours like the Israel H2O Tour for those interested in the amazing work JNF-USA is supporting in Israel in the field of water conservation and reclamation. Trips also attract specific demographics like the Sunshine Tour for active adults, the women only Queen of Sheba Tour and Singles Tours for a variety of ages and interests.

There are also ‘Working Missions’ designed for JNF-USA lay leaders, task force and committee members. These missions evaluate the progress of projects, create future plans and action steps, and assess objectives. ‘Leadership and Development Missions’ are designed to develop and cultivate current and future leaders. And JNF-USA offers ‘invitation only’ trips designed for specific audiences. This is all in addition to students JNF-USA attracts to attend AMHSI, the college students participating on JNF-USA Israel programs and, of course, JNF-USA Shorashim Birthright trips. These programs bring an additional 4,420 students to Israel, for a total of 7,027 annual Israel travelers in 2019.

JNF-USA seeks to engage the services of tour operators to accommodate the continued growth and to develop innovative itineraries and meaningful Israel travel experiences for its participants. Cognizant of the breadth and variety of the Israel opportunities JNF-USA offers, JNF-USA encourages all qualified tour operators to respond to this RFP. No single tour operator is expected to excel in all aspects of the travel JNF-USA offers and, for that reason, JNF-USA seeks to select, through this RFP process, a small number of experienced tour operators with whom to work.

The selected provider(s) will service JNF-USA and its client base as follows:
- Prepare creative and innovative itineraries for different audiences of Israel travelers
- Develop these itineraries with an understanding of JNF-USA’s vision, projects and affiliates in Israel
- Work closely with JNF-USA staff in Israel and the U.S. and with JNF-USA lay leaders and with JNF-USA’s Marketing & Communications Department and assist with travel related marketed campaigns, as appropriate
- Incorporate visits to JNF-USA projects in the itineraries with an understanding of the itinerary goal as communicated by JNF-USA staff
- Manage online registration sites for each JNF-USA mission/trip and share access with JNF-USA staff and provide travel related website and phone service assistance
- Operate within a set budget and communicate timely and effectively if unable to do so
- Provide a detailed cost breakdown for each mission/trip
- Suggest new cultural events, restaurants and experiences relevant to the particular mission or trip
- Regularly communicate with JNF-USA staff and lay leaders and respond in a timely manner to requests and emails
- Ability to secure various levels of accommodations at competitive pricing
- Secure accommodations and reservations
- ‘Hands on’ involvement with tour and trip participants while in Israel, as needed
