

Impact
Fellowship

Washington State Impact Fellowship Now Accepting Nominations and Applications

ALEXANDER MUSS HIGH SCHOOL IN ISRAEL is seeking student leaders for the 2027 Washington State Impact Fellowship. Jewish students entering their sophomore or junior year of high school in 2027 at the time of travel, are invited to apply.

THE FELLOWSHIP INCLUDES

- $15,000 grant*, housing, and meals
- Leadership training
- Workshops on critical thinking, social media, marketing, and public speaking

Be a Part of the Fastest Growing Leadership Network for Jewish Teens!

FALL SEMESTER:

August 25–December 3, 2026 (Dates are subject to change)

FALL SEMESTER:

January 20–June 2, 2027 (Dates are subject to change)

“My Jewish identity has changed as a result of being a scholar at AMHSI because I now have a love for Judaism that I had not had before... Coming back from Israel, I realized the value of celebrating my Jewishness and not hiding it.”

-Rachel A., Impact Fellow

Thanks to the generosity of the Samis Foundation, The Washington State Impact Fellowship was established to provide Jewish students in the area that will be in 10th and 11th grades at the time of travel, with the extraordinary opportunity to connect to the Jewish people and the land of Israel.

Visit AMHSI.org/sessions-financial-aid for more information.

Saul Korin at SKorin@jnf.org

*$250 non-refundable application fee. Airfare not included.

*$15,000 grant includes a $7,500 grant from the Samis Foundation and a $7,500 match from the Boruchin Fund. The grant is applied towards the full tuition price listed at the time of registration and may not be combined with any other Muss discounts or Dream Israel. Families may apply for additional financial aid after acceptance.

JEWISH NATIONAL FUND-USA
Boruchin Center

amhsi.org
info@amhsi.org

