

Impact
Fellowship

APPLY
TODAY

Greater Washington Impact Fellowship

Now Accepting Applications

Applications are now open for the Greater Washington Impact Fellowship for Alexander Muss High School in Israel (Muss). Fellows will receive a $15,000 grant toward tuition.

THE FELLOWSHIP INCLUDES

- $15,000 grant*, housing, and meals
- Leadership training
- Workshops on critical thinking, social media, marketing and public speaking

Fellows are required to fulfill a $2,000 fundraising commitment via JNF Plant Your Way

“The experience truly changed my life. When I first started the program, I had no idea that my teacher would become one of my most inspiring mentors, and my classmates would soon feel like my family.”

– Phoebe N., Impact Fellow

Be a Part of the Fastest Growing Leadership
Network for Jewish Teens!

REGISTER NOW FOR FALL SEMESTER 2026

Thanks to the generosity of the Samis Foundation, The Greater Washington Impact Fellowship was established to provide Jewish students in the area that will be in 10th and 11th grades at the time of travel, with the extraordinary opportunity to connect to the Jewish people and the land of Israel.

Visit AMHSI.org/Impact-Fellowship for more information.

*$250 non-refundable application fee. Airfare not included.

*$15,000 grant goes towards the full tuition price listed at the time of registration and may not be combined with any other Muss discounts or Dream Israel. Families may apply for additional financial aid after acceptance.

JEWISH NATIONAL FUND-USA
Boruchin Center

SAMIS FOUNDATION

amhsi.org
info@amhsi.org

AMHSI AMHSI AMHSI