

Yoel Rosby Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it's now my privilege to introduce you to a man devoted to taking the Jewish National Fund vision for our Homeland from vision to fruition

Yoel is a Lone Soldier and Israel Patriot, who moved from Chicago in 1998 to make Aliyah in Israel, following in the footsteps of his four brothers. In the IDF, Yoel served as a sniper in an elite Search & Rescue unit and was cited for "Special Excellence in Combat" and is currently an active reservist. Yoel earned his B.A. degree in economics and politics and his MBA. After working in the finance industry, Yoel became the director of public relations & development for Ammunition Hill, a partner of JNF. In 2017, Yoel accepted a new position with JNF as National Projects Coordinator in JNF's Israel operations. Yoel continues his contributions to the Jewish state by serving as regional commander of a medic volunteer core and working on a joint task force with police, EMS and search & rescue response teams. Yoel lives near Jerusalem with his wife and their two sons.

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome Jewish National Fund's National Projects Coordinator, Yoel Rosby

Yoel Rosby BIO

Yoel Rosby, JNF National Projects Coordinator (based in Jerusalem) is a Lone Soldier and Israel Patriot, who moved from Chicago in 1998 to make Aliyah in Israel, following in the footsteps of his four brothers. In the IDF, Yoel served as a sniper in an elite Search & Rescue unit and was cited for "Special Excellence in Combat" and is currently an active reservist. Yoel earned his B.A. degree in economics and politics and his MBA. After working in the finance industry, Yoel became the director of public relations & development for Ammunition Hill, a partner of JNF. In 2017, Yoel accepted a new position with JNF as National Projects Coordinator in JNF's Israel operations. Yoel continues his contributions to the Jewish state by serving as regional commander of a medic volunteer core and working on a joint task force with police, EMS and search & rescue response teams. Yoel lives near Jerusalem with his wife and their two sons. He sees it as his daily mission to take the Jewish National Fund vision for our Homeland from vision to fruition.